Camp out at Johns Island County Park during Family Camp Jam in March!

[JOHNS ISLAND] – Families are invited to bring their tents to Johns Island County Park for the third annual Family Camp Jam!

This old-fashioned family campout will take place on March 14-15. The starry skies of scenic Johns Island County Park will be the setting for an evening of unforgettable memories. Participants must provide their own tent camping equipment. Registration is open now and may sell out in advance, so interested campers are encouraged to sign up today (link)!

The campout will feature lots of fun and activities sure to make happy memories. After checking in on March 14, guests can explore the park and enjoy activities on site until sunset. Tackle the climbing wall, watch a remote-controlled airplane demo from the Lowcountry RC Flyers, enjoy disc golf, and sling arrows on the archery range (archery equipment will not be provided). An archery class will also be offered on site; space is limited and participants should sign up upon check-in (archery equipment is provided during the class).

When the sun goes down, the fun will continue! Dinner and marshmallow roasting will be provided and are included in the registration fee. Guests will enjoy live music from Noah Grove, and the Lowcountry Stargazers will host an enchanting stargazing experience.

Registration for the campout is $25 per person and is available online. Each registration includes dinner, music, activities, evening programs and all scheduled entertainment. Kids ages 3 and under are free.

Check-in is from 1 – 5 p.m. on March 14 and check-out is 10 a.m. on March 15. Campers may still enjoy the park after checkout, but must be packed up by 10 a.m. The park's grounds and amenities will be off limits from sunset to sunrise. The event will be held rain or shine.

Adults must accompany campers under the age of 18 at all times. Alcoholic beverages, open fires and pets are not permitted at the campout. For additional camping rules and information, visit CharlestonCountyParks.com (direct link).
