Birds of a Feather Toast Together at Caw Caw Interpretive Center this spring!

[RAVENEL, SC] – Nature enthusiasts and social butterflies are invited to Caw Caw Interpretive Center for the third year of Birds of a Feather! The next event will be held on Saturday, March 21 from 5 – 7 p.m. Spread your wings and join us for an evening of live music, cold beverages, and mingling with other nature enthusiasts.

Guests will enjoy live music from Austin Hahn, as well as beer and wine, which is included in the ticket price. Plus, you will get to experience the natural beauty of Caw Caw Interpretive Center, which is a favored habitat for many different species of birds and animals.

Tickets are $20 per person in advance, or $25 the day of the event (credit card only). To purchase tickets, visit CharlestonCountyParks.com (direct link) or call 843-795-4386.

Food will be available for purchase from a food truck on site at the event. Guests are also permitted to bring their own food.

Valid ID must be presented for alcohol, and outside alcohol is prohibited. Ages 20 and under may attend with a ticketed chaperone free of charge. Dogs and bicycles are not permitted at Caw Caw. Guests are encouraged to bring their own chairs.

Caw Caw Interpretive Center is a 654-acre site in Ravenel that is rich in natural, cultural and historical resources. It contains areas managed for wildlife including waterfowl, songbirds, otters, deer and more, as well as favored habitats for rare wildlife such as American Alligators, Swallow-tailed Kites, Bald Eagles and others. The scenic park features more than seven miles of trails with trailside exhibits, elevated boardwalks through wetlands, historic rice fields, remnants of a former tea farm, and wildlife habitats.

For more information on Birds of a Feather, including accessibility highlights, or to purchase tickets for this event, visit CharlestonCountyParks.com (direct link). This event is brought to you by your Charleston County Parks.

Owned by the Charleston County Park and Recreation Commission (CCPRC), Caw Caw Interpretive Center is located at 5200 Savannah Hwy in Ravenel. The mission of CCPRC is to improve the quality of life in Charleston County by offering a diverse system of park facilities, programs and services. The large park system features over 11,000 acres of property and includes six regional parks, a skate park, three beach parks, four seasonally-lifeguarded beach areas, three dog parks, two landmark fishing piers, three waterparks, 19 boat landings, a climbing wall, a challenge course, an interpretive center, a historic plantation site, an equestrian center, cottages, a campground, a marina, as well as wedding, meeting and event facilities. The park system also offers a wide variety of recreational services - festivals, camps, classes, programs, and more.
