Charleston County Parks to host a Virtual Inclusive Dance Party

[CHARLESTON COUNTY] – The Charleston County Park and Recreation Commission (CCPRC) is introducing a new event that brings the dance party to your living room! As part of CCPRC’s goal to offer social and recreational opportunities for all members of the community, the Virtual Inclusive Dance Party will be held on Saturday, Nov. 14 from 6 – 7 p.m.

The Virtual Inclusive Dance Party will bring fun, friends and great music to participants via Zoom. Attendees should make sure they have access to Zoom as well as a webcam prior to the event. Guests should also be sure they bring their best dance moves!

This social distancing-friendly event is intended for people with disabilities along with their families, friends and caregivers. The Virtual Inclusive Dance Party is free, but all interested participants must register in advance at CharlestonCountyParks.com. A Zoom link along with simple instructions to join the party will be emailed out the Friday prior to the event.

Charleston County Parks hosts inclusive events throughout the year, including Inclusive Swim Night at the waterparks and the West County Aquatic Center on select evenings during the summer as well as the annual Inclusive Prom, the Inclusive Superhero Dance Party, and the Holiday Hoedown. For more information on the Virtual Inclusive Dance Party or any CCPRC program, visit CharlestonCountyParks.com or call 843-795-4386.

The mission of CCPRC is to improve the quality of life in Charleston County by offering a diverse system of park facilities, programs and services. The large park system features over 11,000 acres of property and includes seven regional parks, three beach parks, four seasonally-lifeguarded beach areas, three dog parks, two landmark fishing piers, a skate park, three waterparks, 19 boat landings, a climbing wall, a challenge course, a historic plantation site, an interpretive center, an equestrian center, cottages, a campground, a marina, as well as wedding, meeting and event facilities. The park system offers a wide variety of recreational services – festivals, camps, classes, programs, and more. For more information on CCPRC, call 843-795-4386, download the Charleston County Parks app, or visit www.charlestoncountyparks.com.
