Inclusive Swim Nights Offered This Summer at Charleston County Parks

[CHARLESTON COUNTY] – People with disabilities and their families are invited to spend some refreshingly fun evenings at the waterparks and the pool this summer!

Inclusive Swim Nights take place after the parks are closed to the general public.

These after-hours events have smaller crowds and are intended to be judgment-free zones, so that people with disabilities and their caregivers and families feel welcome to enjoy the waterpark and pool amenities. Lifeguards will be on staff.

Advance registration is highly recommended and is available at CharlestonCountyParks.com or by calling 843-795-4386.

Food and beverages will be available for purchase on site. Water wheelchairs will be available for checkout during the events on a first come, first served basis. Advance registration is recommended. A paid chaperone is required for all participants.
