Charleston County Parks to host Inclusive Silent Disco Feb. 3

NORTH CHARLESTON, SC – Charleston County Parks is bringing back its Inclusive Silent Disco in February! This music event for people with disabilities and their families and friends will be held on Saturday, Feb. 3 from 5 – 6:30 p.m. at Cypress Hall within Wannamaker County Park in North Charleston.

The Silent Disco is a unique party experience where all guests wear wireless glowing headphones, provided free of charge with event admission. Two live DJs will play a variety of music, and attendees will have the opportunity to switch between the two genres of music in their headphones. Headphones will be provided by Quiet Kingz; participants will not be able to bring their own headphones. Refreshments will also be served.

This event is specifically offered for people with disabilities and their families and friends. Chaperones are required for ages 15 and under. Admission is $4 per person in advance and $5 on site. Advance registration can be made by calling 843-795-4386.

The Charleston County Park and Recreation Commission (CCPRC) is committed to creating and promoting inclusion for individuals of all abilities through Inclusive Recreation programs like the Inclusive Silent Disco. Other CCPRC Inclusive Recreation programs include Inclusive Swim Nights at the waterparks, Wheel to Surf Adaptive Surfing, the Inclusive Prom, the Holiday Hoedown and the Inclusive Superhero Dance Party.

For more information on the Inclusive Silent Disco and other Inclusive Recreation programs offered by Charleston County Parks, visit CharlestonCountyParks.com (direct link) or call 843-795-4386.

Wannamaker County Park is located at 8888 University Boulevard in North Charleston, and is owned and operated by CCPRC. The mission of CCPRC is to improve the quality of life in Charleston County by offering a diverse system of park facilities, programs and services. The large park system features over 11,000 acres of property and includes four land parks, three beach parks, four seasonally-lifeguarded beach areas, three dog parks, two landmark fishing piers, three waterparks, a skate park, 19 boat landings, a climbing wall, a challenge course, a historic plantation site, an interpretive center, an equestrian center, cottages, a campground, a marina, as well as wedding, meeting and event facilities. The park system offers a wide variety of recreational services – festivals, camps, classes, programs, and more. For more information on CCPRC, call 843-795-4386 or visit www.charlestoncountyparks.com.